Random products of matrices

MARCELO VIANA

Instituto de Matemática Pura e Aplicada - Rio de Janeiro, Brasil. E-mail: marceloviana000@gmail.com

Abstract

We discuss several results on products of random matrices, especially in dimension 2, culminating in the recent proof that in the i.i.d. case the Lyapunov exponents (exponential rates of growth of the norm) always depend continuously on the system's data: the cocycle and the probability distribution. This is based on joint work with Carlos Bocker Net.